The following motion has been proposed by Councillor Bell and seconded by Councillor Turmaine –

“This council notes the recent publication of the ‘Marmot Review’ and the implications for communities that are suffering still from austerity and the subsequent health inequalities that have been made worse by it.

The Council notes the change in life expectancy particularly for women since 2011 as revealed in the Marmot Review.

This Council resolves that future policy by the Mayor and his administration should properly take account of the results and conclusions of the Marmot review in helping to create and develop healthy and sustainable places and communities.”
